

RocketPort uPCI Products End of Life Announcement

Effective March 17th, 2017

Dear Valued Control Customer,

This letter is being issued to serve as formal notification that Control is initiating the End of Life (EoL) process for select models in the RocketPort UPCI, RocketPort UPCI SMPTE, RocketPort Plus, and RocketModem line of multiport serial products. Control's RocketPort INFINITY and RocketPort EXPRESS products will not be effected. Important milestones and a full list of affected products are detailed in the tables below. The purpose of this notification is to alert our customers of the change in status of these products, present the opportunity for last time purchases and suggest alternate products as replacements. Please contact your Control sales representative with any questions or to arrange samples of suggested alternative products.
